

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3012

To reauthorize the North Korean Human Rights Act of 2004, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 28, 2023

Mrs. KIM of California (for herself and Mr. BERNADETTE) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To reauthorize the North Korean Human Rights Act of 2004, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “North Korean Human 5 Rights Reauthorization Act of 2023”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) The North Korean Human Rights Act of 9 2004 (Public Law 108–333; 22 U.S.C. 7801 et seq.)
10 and subsequent reauthorizations of such Act were

1 the product of broad, bipartisan consensus regarding 2 the promotion of human rights, documentation of 3 human rights violations, transparency in the delivery 4 of humanitarian assistance, and the importance of 5 refugee protection.

6 (2) The human rights and humanitarian condi-
7 tions within North Korea remain deplorable and 8 have been intentionally perpetuated against the peo-9 ple of North Korea through policies endorsed and 10 implemented by Kim Jong-un and the Workers' 11 Party of Korea.

12 (3) According to a 2014 report released by the 13 United Nations Human Rights Council's Commis-14 sion of Inquiry on Human Rights in the Democratic 15 People's Republic of Korea, between 80,000 and 16 120,000 children, women, and men were being held 17 in political prison camps in North Korea, where they 18 were subjected to deliberate starvation, forced labor, 19 executions, torture, rape, forced abortion, and infan-20 ticide.

21 (4) North Korea continues to hold a number of 22 South Koreans and Japanese abducted after the 23 signing of the Agreement Concerning a Military Ar-
24 mistice in Korea, signed at Panmunjom July 27, 25 1953 (commonly referred to as the "Korean War

1 Armistice Agreement") and refuses to acknowledge
2 the abduction of more than 100,000 South Koreans
3 during the Korean War in violation of the Geneva
4 Convention.

5 (5) Human rights violations in North Korea,
6 which include forced starvation, sexual violence
7 against women and children, restrictions on freedom
8 of movement, arbitrary detention, torture, execu-9 tions, and enforced disappearances, amount to 10 crimes against humanity according to the United 11 Nations Commission of Inquiry on Human Rights in 12 the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

13 (6) The effects of the COVID–19 pandemic and 14 North Korea's strict lockdown of its borders and 15 crackdowns on informal market activities and small 16 entrepreneurship have drastically increased food in-17 security for its people and given rise to famine con-18 ditions in parts of the country.

19 (7) North Korea's COVID–19 border lockdown 20 measures also include shoot-to-kill orders that have 21 resulted in the killing of—

22 (A) North Koreans attempting to cross the 23 border; and
24 (B) at least 1 South Korean citizen in Sep-25 tember 2020.

1 (8) The Government of the People's Republic of 2 China is aiding and abetting in crimes against hu-
3 manity by forcibly repatriating North Korean refu-
4 gees to North Korea where they are sent to prison
5 camps, harshly interrogated, and tortured or exe-6 cuted.

7 (9) The forcible repatriation of North Korean 8 refugees violates the People's Republic of China's 9 freely undertaken obligation to uphold the principle
10 of non-refoulement, as a state party to the Conven-
11 tion Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at Ge-12 neva July 28, 1951 (and made applicable by the 13 Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at 14 New York January 31, 1967 (19 UST 6223)).

15 (10) North Korea continues to bar freedom of 16 religion and persecute religious minorities, especially 17 Christians. Eyewitnesses report that Christians in 18 North Korea have been tortured, forcibly detained,
19 and even executed for possessing a Bible or pro-
20 fessing Christianity.

21 (11) United States and international broad-
22 casting operations into North Korea—

23 (A) serve as a critical source of outside
24 news and information for the North Korean 25 people; and

(B) provide a valuable service for countering regime propaganda and false narratives.

(12) The position of Special Envoy on North Korean Human Rights Issues was vacant from January 2017 to December 2022, even though the President is required to appoint a Senate-confirmed Special Envoy to fill this position in accordance with section 107 of the North Korean Human Rights Act of 2004 (22 U.S.C. 7817). In January 2023 President Biden nominated Julie Turner as Special Envoy on North Korean Human Rights and Issues and her nomination is currently awaiting Senate confirmation.

14 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

15 It is the sense of Congress that—

(A) to immediately halt its forcible repatriation of North Koreans;

(B) to allow the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (referred to in this section as “UNHCR”) unimpeded access to North Koreans within China to determine whether they are refugees and require assistance;

(C) to fulfill its obligations as a state party to the Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at Geneva July 28, 1951 (and made applicable by the Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at New York January 31, 1967 (19 UST 6223) and the Agreement on the upgrading of the UNHCR Mission in the People's Republic of China to UNHCR branch office in the People's Republic of China, done at Geneva December 1, 1995;

(D) to address the concerns of the United Nations Committee Against Torture by incorporating into domestic legislation the principle of non-refoulement; and

(E) to recognize the legal status of North Korean women who marry or have children with Chinese citizens and ensure that all such moth-

1 ers and children are granted resident status
2 and access to education and other public serv-
3 ices in accordance with Chinese law and inter-4 national standards;

5 (3) the United States Government should con-
6 tinue to promote the effective and transparent deliv-
7 ery and distribution of any humanitarian aid pro-
8 vided in North Korea to ensure that such aid 9 reaches its intended recipients to the point of con-10 sumption or utilization by cooperating closely with 11 the Government of the Republic of Korea and inter-12 national and nongovernmental organizations;

13 (4) the Department of State should continue to 14 take steps to increase public awareness about the 15 risks and dangers of travel by United States citizens 16 to North Korea, including by continuing its policy of 17 blocking United States passports from being used to 18 travel to North Korea without a special validation
19 from the Department of State;

20 (5) the United Nations, which has a significant 21 role to play in promoting and improving human 22 rights in North Korea, should press for access for 23 the United Nations Special Rapporteur and the 24 United Nations High Commissioner for Human

1 Rights on the situation of human rights in North
2 Korea;

3 (6) Julie Turner, Nominee for Special Envoy on 4 North Korean Human Rights Issues should be con-
5 firmed without delay—

6 (A) to properly promote and coordinate
7 North Korean human rights and humanitarian 8 issues; and

9 (B) to participate in policy planning and 10 implementation with respect to refugee issues;

11 (7) the United States should urge North Korea
12 to repeal the Reactionary Thought and Culture De-13 nunciation Law and other draconian laws, regula-14 tions, and decrees that manifestly violate the free-15 dom of opinion and expression and the freedom of 16 thought, conscience, and religion;

17 (8) the United States should urge North Korea
18 to ensure that any restrictions on addressing the 19 COVID–19 pandemic are necessary, proportionate, 20 nondiscriminatory, time-bound, transparent, and 21 allow international staff to operate inside the North 22 Korea to provide international assistance based on 23 independent needs assessments;

24 (9) the United States should expand the Re-
25 wards for Justice program to be open to North Ko-

1 rean officials who can provide evidence of crimes
2 against humanity being committed by North Korean 3 officials;

4 (10) the United States should continue to seek 5 cooperation from all foreign governments—

6 (A) to allow the UNHCR access to process
7 North Korean refugees overseas for resettlement; 8 and

9 (B) to allow United States officials access 10 to process refugees for possible resettlement in 11 the United States; and

12 (11) the Secretary of State, through diplomacy
13 by senior officials, including United States ambassadors
14 to Asia-Pacific countries, and in close co-
15 operation with South Korea, should make every ef-
16 fort to promote the protection of North Korean refu-17 gees, escapees, and defectors.

9 through 2028 if the position of Special Envoy remains va-10 cant, the Secretary of State shall submit a report to the 11 appropriate congressional committees that describes the 12 efforts being taken to appoint the Special Envoy.”.

13 SEC. 7. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING KOREAN-AMER-14 ICAN DIVIDED FAMILIES.

15 It is the sense of Congress that—

16 (1) the United States and North Korea should 17 begin the process of reuniting Korean-American di-
18 vided family members with their immediate relatives 19 through ways such as—

20 (A) identifying divided families in the 21 United States and North Korea who are willing 22 and able to participate in a pilot program for 23 family reunions;

24 (B) finding matches for members of such 25 families through organizations such as the Red 26 Cross; and

- 1 (C) working with the Government of South
2 Korea to include American citizens in inter-Ko-3 rean video reunions;
- 4 (2) the institution of family is inalienable and 5 the restoration of contact between divided families
6 whether physically, literally, or virtually is an ur-7 gent need; and
- 8 (3) the United States and North Korea should 9 pursue reunions as a humanitarian priority of imme-10 diate concern.
